

Governing Board of Directors -- Member

VCWWC is an all-voluntary organization led by an all-volunteer Board. The goal is to attract and thoughtfully engage Governing Board Members who have demonstrated a sustained commitment to VCWWC, aspire to make a difference in the community, and enthusiastically offer their diverse talents, skills, and passion for supporting the mission, vision, and goals of VCWWC.

Board Member Roles and Responsibilities

A prospective board member might bring specific skills, talents, and experiences to work effectively with committees to provide thought leadership, strategic planning, fundraising, finance and budgeting, marketing, special event planning, communications, writing, legal, public speaking, member cultivation, or other areas of interest.

1. Roles:

- Serve as Ambassadors for VCWWC.
- Willing to recruit new VCWWC members.
- Represent VCWWC at community events when available.

2. Responsibilities:

- Relates to the mission, vision, and strategic imperatives of VCWWC.
- Attends regular VCWWC board meetings and other special meetings, quarterly member meetings, and check presentations when possible.
- Serves on and/or leads committees or task forces and offers to take on special assignments.
- Takes action to advance new opportunities for support.
- Makes an annual $100.00 contribution for VCWWC Administrative costs.

Service Commitment

Two-year Term

- Members commit to a two-year term, which is renewable.

Summary

The mission of VCWWC is to make a difference in the lives of individuals in Volusia County, Florida, by raising money through its members, directing their quarterly donations, and matching grants to a qualified 501(C)(3) selected by its members.

Volusia County Women Who Care (VCWWC) is a nonprofit organization in Volusia County, FL, established in 2017. It is a fundraising organization created by women who want to significantly impact the community by streamlining fundraising for nonprofit agencies.

Updated 5-24-25